

I worked on the following parts of the project:

- Design for cross neighbors (We worked together on this)
- Initialization of the game map
- Dividing the map for worker processes and sending partial maps to them
- Attack
 - counting nearby towers
 - Removing towers if health ≤ 0
- Getting the data from workers at the end
 - Creating final map and writing to console